

For our learning centers in Cambodia, we are looking for a

CURRICULUM DEVELOPER

WHO ARE WE?

BOOKBRIDGE is a social enterprise that sets up learning centers as social businesses in rural areas of Cambodia. The learning centers bring quality education to people in need and serve as real life case studies in our “Capability Program” for international executives to learn project planning, working with multiple stakeholders and leading diverse teams in different cultural contexts. Since 2011, we have setup 5 learning centers in provinces across the country.

WHAT IS YOUR ROLE?

As a BOOKBRIDGE Fellow, you are responsible for developing a unified English language curriculum for our Cambodian LCs based on already existing curriculums at our Learning Centers. You can be based in Phnom Penh or at one of our Learning Centers, but are expected to spend at least 50% of your time between all our Learning Centers as necessary to inform your curriculum development work.

WHO ARE YOU? Ideally, you...

- have experience in working with children and young adults
- have already worked with people from different cultures
- have a very good command of the English language
- are highly flexible and able to work independently
- are able to commit yourself for at least 12 months
- are at least 25 years old – have professional experience in curriculum development for English language courses

CURRICULUM DEVELOPER

WHAT DO WE OFFER YOU?

As a BOOKBRIDGE Fellow, you get to experience and shape the impact at all of learning centers. The Fellowship allows you to enhance your skills in a totally different environment and develop personally. We properly prepare you for your mission and support you with a free visa and simple accommodation in the local community.

We look forward to receiving your application. Please include a motivational letter and your CV. Send your application to monika@bookbridge.org.
