Samach Lay

By Noem Ratanak
Angroka Learning Center (Cambodia)

There is a model woman in my society. Her name is Samach Lay. She is 30 years old. She is from Cambodia. She lives in Tatem village, Cheang Tong commune, Tramkok district, Takeo province. She is the second child in her family. She has a husband and three children. She is a clerk in Cheang Tong commune. She works hard with her job. She always completes her works. She is smart and friendly. She always teaches and advises to people and kids in the village. When she studied in high school, she studied hard. She got good grade in class. She is good at Math and English. All teachers encourage her to continue and feel proud of her study.

In her family, there are farms and has lot of seeds. She shares her seeds to people in village when they lack. She has a good morality and good advice. She always tells and explains what they want to know about how to plan the seeds. She always invites people in the village to join in the meeting. They always join her and enjoy with her idea in the meeting.

One day she met a problem with her life. She had an idea for developing the village. She collected money from villagers to buy seeds for farming season and repair the road in the village. They waited long time but did not see the seeds and the repaired road. They accused her of taking their money. She told and showed their money to them. She confirmed to them she did not take their money but she was busy at her works. She explained to them about her works. People understood her and believed in her. They said sorry to her.

Sooner, she bought seeds to share them and repair the roads in the village. Villagers was happy and supported her achievement. People in the village liked and respected her from this day. She always helps other works in the village. She always provides confidence by her idea and her practice.

I think she is the best model woman in our society because she is smart and brave enough in development in our society. Villagers chose her as a model woman in society because she has knowledge and ability. I and villagers like and admire with
